Information for the consumer

1. You may withdraw from a contract concluded at a distance within 14 days of the date on which it was concluded, without giving any reason. To meet the withdrawal deadline, it is sufficient to send the notice before the deadline expires.
2. The notice may be sent to the email address or postal address given above, or submitted using the "Withdraw from contract here" function in the Customer Panel on the website fpv.power-technology.pl. Use of this form is not mandatory – the notice may take any unambiguous form.
3. The Organiser will acknowledge receipt of a notice submitted electronically by email.
4. The Organiser will refund all payments made, including the deposit, without delay and no later than 14 days from the date of receipt of the notice, using the same means of payment as the consumer used, unless the consumer expressly agrees to a different means of refund that does not involve any costs for them.
5. If the consumer requested that the course begin before the end of the withdrawal period and then withdraws from the contract, they are obliged to pay for the services provided up to the moment of withdrawal, calculated in proportion to the extent of the services provided (Article 35 of the Consumer Rights Act) – under the rules set out in § 10 of the Training Terms and Conditions. The right of withdrawal does not apply once the service has been fully performed, if the consumer was informed of this and acknowledged it before performance began.
6. The right of withdrawal also applies to a natural person running a business, if the contract is not of a professional nature for them (Article 7aa of the Consumer Rights Act).
